

House to accomplish the business of the session by the 13th of February next: Therefore,

Ordered, That James H. Milbourne be appointed an additional Committee Clerk for the remainder of the session.

Which were twice read; when

On motion by Mr. Yoe, the said preamble was stricken out.

On motion by Mr. Buskirk, (seconded by two other members,) the vote of the House whereby the said preamble had been stricken out, was reconsidered; and the said preamble being reinstated,

On motion by Mr. Buskirk, the same was amended, by striking out these words: "Whereas the Committee Clerks now appointed," and inserting in lieu thereof the following:—

"Whereas, some of the Committee Clerks are prevented by indisposition from attending to their duties, and it is apparent to the members of this House, that the other Clerks."

Mr. Wootton then proposed to amend the said order, by striking out the words, "for the remainder of the session," and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "during the indisposition of the said Committee Clerks."

Mr. Ely having called for a division of the question on this motion, it was accordingly put on striking out,

And determined in the negative.

Mr. Ely then moved that the further consideration of the said preamble and order, be referred to the first day of June next.

Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred and was stated on the adoption of the order, with its preamble, as amended. When,

On motion by Mr. Brawner, the said question was divided, and being first put on the adoption of the preamble, as amended,

It was decided in the negative.

The question was then put on the adoption of the order.

And it was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion by Mr. Burchenal,

The yeas and nays (being required by seven members:) were ordered and taken.

Those who voted in the affirmative, are,
